ENTRIES CLOSE FRIDAY 15TH SEPTEMBER 2017

All stock entered for this show and sale must be the property of exhibitor/vendor and not imported in the preceding 28 days and have been kept on their premises for at least this period of time.

The welfare of the stock is the responsibility of the exhibitor. Whilst the greatest possible care will be taken for all exhibits the Society accepts no responsibility for them and it is a condition of entry that the exhibitor indemnifies the Society against all claims for injury, loss or damage.

The Society will not be responsible for baskets, crates, boxes or other property of the exhibitors, either at the show or during transit, and the cost of any loss or damage must be borne by the exhibitor.

Exhibits found to be unhealthy on arrival will not be exhibited but will be immediately removed and returned to the owners, and entry fees will be forfeited.

The committee reserves the right to appoint another judge in the event of an appointed judge being unable to officiate.

In addition to the foregoing general poultry section rules it is a condition of entry that the poultry section shall form part of the Autumn Show and all exhibitors are subject to and agree to abide by the Regulations of the East of England Agricultural Society and Code of Practice for the Safety and Accident Prevention.

The entry forms must be signed by the exhibitor/vendor and this signifies that the rules have been read and accepted by them.
